The Registration Regulation does not seem to permit of any remission of registration fees being made in any individual case as the Stamp Regulation does. It will be seen from file No. 65-03-03 (Sep. Rev.) that in the case of Mr D. Devaraja Urs the stamp duty of Rs 2800 only was remitted.

Under Sec 78 of the Registration Regulation, Govt can only alter the scale of fees fixed by them in regard to the several matters described therein.

As regards the remission of the Stamp duty, there is provision in the Stamp Regulation to permit of it but the point for consideration is of the party's inability to pay the duty is a sufficient justification for the Concession of exemption from payment. If the borrower can only pay from his own funds or from amt borrowed by him, the duty payable by him, an amount equal to the duty may perhaps be advanced by Govt and added to the loan. If however Govt consider that this is a fit case for showing the Concession recommended

As under section 9 of the Stamps Regulation, the order has to be published in the Gazette, it seems, it should appear in the form of a notification. In Mr Dwaraja Rau's case, the then Secy seems to have directed otherwise

There is also another deed - that to be executed in favour of the Palace - on which also stamp duty may have to be remitted.

Revenue Departments, Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to Government Proceedings No: Fl.356-7/ S & A 77-07-8 dated the 23rd July 1908, approving the draft of a deed of conveyance to be executed by Mr: Chammappaji Urs, son of late Mr: Basappaji Urs, for the loan of Rs: 1,25,000/- sanctioned from State Funds under Government Order No: Fl. 501-7/Gl.Fl. 29-05 dated the 21st August 1907, I have the honor to represent that under the ordinary rules in force the stamp duty and the Registration fee on account of said conveyance amounts to more than Rs: 870/-, that the present financial situation of Mr: Chamappaji Urs does not enable him to defray this cost ~~for~~ from his own resources, that out of the sum of Rs: 1,76,000/- advanced from both the State and Palace funds for discharging the liabilities of late Mr: Basappaji Urs, only Rs: 6725 are available, against which there is left unsettled a mortgage debt of Rs: 6,900/- claimed with interest by one Singamma, who unlike other creditors of the late Bakshi, has not come to any reasonable terms as yet, and that under these circumstances I as Agent of Government to settle the affairs of the late Bakshi, am strongly of opinion that this is a fit case to ------ deserve the special concession of Government, and accordingly beg to recommend that Government may be pleased to order, under Section 9 of the Mysore Stamp Regulations of 1900, the remis-sion of the stamp duty on the aforesaid conveyance deed to be executed by Mr: Chamappaji Urs, and the reduction in the rate of the Registration fee, under Section 78 of the Mysore Regis-tration Regulation of 1903, to the same extent as has been noti-fied in the case of the Agricultural (Coffee) Banks, the members whereof have similarly obtained large loans for the purpose of discharging the previous encumbrances on their estates.

I solicit the favour of early orders of Government, to enable me to have the conveyance deed in question executed forthwith.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
